

U .S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
CRIMINAL DIVISION
EXPERIENCED ATTORNEY, GS-14/15

About the Office:

The Counterterrorism Section (CTS) is responsible for assisting in the design, implementation, and support of law enforcement efforts, legislative initiatives, policies and strategies relating to combating international and domestic terrorism. The Section seeks to assist in preventing and disrupting acts of terrorism which may occur anywhere in the world which impact on significant United States interests and persons through investigation and prosecution.

Responsibilities and Opportunity Offered:

The Office is seeking an experienced attorney to work in the International Terrorism Unit focussing on al-Qaeda and al-Qaeda related groups. This Unit is responsible for the application of investigative techniques to the task of identifying and disrupting terrorist plots before they occur. Working closely with agents from the FBI, the CTS Regional Antiterrorism Coordinators, and the Anti-Terrorism Advisory Council Coordinators and terrorism prosecutors in U.S. Attorneys' Offices throughout the country, promotes the enforcement of terrorism statutes, develops policies, plans operations and initiatives, reviews intelligence and, in appropriate cases, handles the resulting criminal litigation. In addition to its case-related work, the Unit is engaged in identifying terrorist trends and patterns, foreign and domestic training, public speaking, and topical writing in this enforcement area.
